

PURO

The classic spherical shape's surface is formed by a number of points in a three-dimensional area, spaced evenly apart from the center. Perfecting the already naturally rounded shapes found in nature, this design is often used in art, culture and architecture. Constructed from weatherproof polypropylene, featuring a surface that is robust, yet soft to the touch, PURO brings out the beauty in plants. A pleasure to behold from any angle.

Available in 2 colours, Slate and White.
